Customer Service Center
P. O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Applicants hereby request a corrected filing receipt. Attached is a copy of the Filing Receipt with the changes noted thereon. Specifically, there is an error in the Domestic Priority Data as Claimed by Applicant on the original Filing Receipt. Attached is a copy of the first page of the Specification, showing the Cross Reference to Related Applications, and an Application Data Sheet. Please make the following correction:

The Domestic Priority Data as Claimed by Applicant section should read:

This application is a CON of 10/677,868 10/02/2003 which is a CON of 09/443,196 11/19/1999

which claims benefit of 60/146,746 08/02/1999

Applicants submit that the error was not the fault of the Applicants. Accordingly, no fee is believed to be due.

Respectfully submitted,

By Cynthia L. Clay

PERSONAL CARE ARTICLES COMPRISING BATTING

CROSS REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATION

This application is a continuation of application Serial No. 10/677,868, filed October 2, 2003, which is a continuation of application Serial No. 09/443,196, filed November 19, 1999, and claims the benefit of U. S. provisional patent application Serial No. 60/146,746, filed on August 2, 1999 in the names of Smith et al.

TECHNICAL FIELD

The present invention relates to disposable, personal care articles suitable for cleansing and/or therapeutically treating the skin, hair and any other sites in need of such treatment. These articles each comprise a water insoluble substrate having a non-scouring, lofty, low-density batting layer comprising synthetic fibers and a non-lofty, fluid-permeable nonwoven layer disposed adjacent to the batting layer; and either a cleansing component disposed adjacent to the water insoluble substrate, wherein the cleansing component comprises from about 10% to about 1000%, by weight of the water insoluble substrate, of a lathering surfactant or a therapeutic benefit component which comprises from about 10% to about 1000%, by weight of the water insoluble substrate, of a therapeutic benefit agent or both. Consumers use the articles by wetting them with water and rubbing them on the area to be cleansed and/or therapeutically treated (e.g. conditioned).

The invention also encompasses methods for cleansing and/or conditioning the skin and hair using the articles of the present invention.

BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION

Personal care products, particularly cleansing and conditioning products, have traditionally been marketed in a variety of forms such as bar soaps, creams, lotions, and gels. Typically, these products have attempted to satisfy a number of criteria to be acceptable to consumers. These criteria include cleansing effectiveness, skin feel, mildness to skin, hair, and ocular mucosae, and lather volume. Ideal personal cleansers should gently cleanse the skin or hair, cause little or no irritation, and should not leave the skin or hair with a heavy buildup or overly dry when used frequently.

It is also highly desirable to deliver such cleansing and conditioning benefits from a disposable product. Disposable products are convenient because they obviate the need to carry or store cumbersome bottles, bars, jars, tubes, and other forms of clutter including cleansing

LICENSE FOR FOREIGN FILING UNDER
Title 35, United States Code, Section 184
Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, 5.11 & 5.15

GRANTED

The applicant has been granted a license under 35 U.S.C. 184, if the phrase "IF REQUIRED, FOREIGN FILING LICENSE GRANTED" followed by a date appears on this form. Such licenses are issued in all applications where the conditions for issuance of a license have been met, regardless of whether or not a license may be required as set forth in 37 CFR 5.15. The scope and limitations of this license are set forth in 37 CFR 5.15(a) unless an earlier license has been issued under 37 CFR 5.15(b). The license is subject to revocation upon written notification. The date indicated is the effective date of the license, unless an earlier license of similar scope has been granted under 37 CFR 5.13 or 5.14.

This license is to be retained by the licensee and may be used at any time on or after the effective date thereof unless it is revoked. This license is automatically transferred to any related applications(s) filed under 37 CFR 1.53(d). This license is not retroactive.

The grant of a license does not in any way lessen the responsibility of a licensee for the security of the subject matter as imposed by any Government contract or the provisions of existing laws relating to espionage and the national security or the export of technical data. Licensees should apprise themselves of current regulations especially with respect to certain countries, of other agencies, particularly the Office of Defense Trade Controls, Department of State (with respect to Arms, Munitions and Implements of War (22 CFR 121-128)); the Office of Export Administration, Department of Commerce (15 CFR 370.10 (j)); the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of Treasury (31 CFR Parts 500+) and the Department of Energy.

NOT GRANTED

No license under 35 U.S.C. 184 has been granted at this time, if the phrase "IF REQUIRED, FOREIGN FILING LICENSE GRANTED" DOES NOT appear on this form. Applicant may still petition for a license under 37 CFR 5.12, if a license is desired before the expiration of 6 months from the filing date of the application. If 6 months has lapsed from the filing date of this application and the licensee has not received any indication of a secrecy order under 35 U.S.C. 181, the licensee may foreign file the application pursuant to 37 CFR 5.15(b).
